THE HOMAGE OF JUSTICE. We have compiled, from various sources, the following disinterested testimonials, which were commanded from their several authors by the los ty patriotism, valor talents and success of Gen.

HARRISON, long before he was named for the Presidency, and in times which ought to give them weight sufficient to bear down all the petty calumnies and quibbling objections which party malignity may now presume to forge against the war worn and time honored patriot and soldier.

The authorities we present against the puny attacks of Loco-Foco Federalism, and which we gainst all opposition, are no less than the Cox-GRESSOF THE UNITED STATES, the LEGISLATURES OF INDIANA, and of KENTUCKY, JAMES MADI-SON, JAMES MONROE, COL. RICHARD M. JOHN-BON, ANTHORY WAYNE, LANGDON CHEVES, SI-MON SNYDER, GOV. SHELBY, COM. PERRY, COL. CROGHAN, COL. DAVIES, and others, including in the illustrious catalogue even Thomas Rivente

Col. Johnson said, (in Congress)-"Who is Gen. Harrison! The son of one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence, who spent the greater part of his large fortune in redeeming the pledge he then gave, of his fortune, bleand sacred honor,' to secure the liberties of his coun-

.. During the late war, he was longer in active service than any other General officer, he was perhaps, oftener in action than any one of them, and never sustained a defeat."

Janes Madison, in a special message to Con gress, Dec. 18, 1811, said, While it is deeply lamented that so many valuable lives have been lost in the action which took place on the 7th ultimo, Congress will see with satisfaction the dauntless spirit of fortitude victoriously displayed by every description of troops en gaged, as well as the collected firmness which distin-guished their commander on an occasion requiring the utmost exertions of valour and disciplin James Manison in his me-sage to Congress Nov. 1812, said, An ample force from the States of Kentucky the addition of a few regulars under the command of Brigadier Gen. The success on Lake Eric having opened a par sage on the territory of the enemy, the officer com-manding the Northwestern arms, transferred the troops, fleeing with their savage associate, forced appointed the following persons to fill these va a general action, which quickly terminated in the cancies, viz: capture of the British, and dispersion of the savage

This result is signally honorable to Major Gen TAL HARBISON, by whose military talents it was prepared.

The following resolve of both houses of the WILLIAM H. HARRISON, Captain, Legislature of Kentucky, will have a similar Kingsbury, promoted. Legislature of Kentucky, Jun. 7, 1812. Resolved, By the Senate and House of Repre sentatives of the State of Kentucky, that in the late campaign against the Indians upon the Wabash, William Henry Harrison has behaved like a hero, a patriot, and a general; and that for his cool deliberate, skilful and gallant conduct in the battle of Tipecanoe, he well deserves the warmest thanks of his country and his nation.

Gen. Authory Wayne, in his Letter to the Sec-

Lastly we come to the next compliment of Thomas Richie, Editor of the Richmond Enquirer, the leading organ of the Coalition in South, who now brandishes his old "chapeless sword with two broken points," and threatens devastating war upon the conquorer of the Brittish and Indian Coolitlon of the West! The Richmond Enquirer said:
